The judges will take into account the following aspects of the contribution when assessing a nomination.

CATEGORY 26:
OUTSTANDING CONTRIBUTION BY A
VOLUNTEER OR VOLUNTEER GROUP

QUESTION 1 OVERVIEW OF THE NOMINEE OR NOMINEES
(10 MARKS)

Provide a brief overview of the nominee/nominees, highlighting their outstanding attributes and their role in the tourism industry.

QUESTION 2 NOMINEES PERSONAL SERVICE AND EXAMPLES OF ACTIVITIES (20 MARKS)

Provide examples of the nominee/nominees' volunteer activities and personal service to the industry in their local region and, if relevant, at a statewide and national level.

TIPS:

If the nominee/nominees also undertake paid work in the tourism industry, focus on volunteer activities that are over and above their paid employment. The emphasis should be on personal and professional commitment.

QUESTION 3 BENEFITS TO THE INDUSTRY AND SUCCESS
(20 MARKS)

Provide specific examples of volunteer activities undertaken by the nominee/nominees that have helped advance Queensland's tourism industry.

TIPS:

Examples could include initiatives shown in the area of operations and administration, the consistent delivery of customer service, activities resulting in the improvement of industry standards, participation in industry organisations, representation on tourism boards or campaign committees, mentoring, etc. Consider referring to hours and/or skills contributed.
