Francesca Lia Block is a magical creature. With over 30 books to her name, she has the ability to conjure stories like a medium conjures spirits. Starting with her first book Weetzie Bat, which Block wrote while a student at UC Berkeley, she came forward as a breaker of social boundaries, writing about the Mohawk-and-torn-lace teen experience. In Block's pages, we were not those kids worried about getting our periods for the first time; we were the ones struggling with neglect, eating ...
